

Stephen Woodson Memorial Scholarship

Oak Park High School

A 1968 Oak Park graduate, Steve played football and was involved in the Boy Scouts, attaining the rank of Eagle Scout. He attended Northwest Missouri State University where he studied business. After college, he enlisted in the U.S. Navy and served in the Vietnam War. He then returned to Kansas City, working in the banking and finance industry before starting his own business. Throughout his life, Steve was committed to working with young men and women in community programs, such as Big Brothers and Big Sisters and Junior Achievement and as a referee for high school sports. His scholarship benefits an Oak Park graduate who demonstrates a financial need to attend a college or university.
